TUITION IN SNAP-SHOTTING At Macy's All the world is taking snap-shots. Some experience trouble with their cameras. That comes of not sufficient care being taken at the outset in buying at the dependable store.

In some cases knowledge of photography is self-acquired, and therefore apt to be somewhat defective. At this particular time when everybody who hasn't a camera is thinking of getting one and wonders how long it will take to learn, it is well to call attention to the fact that Macy's maintains a class of Photography where every detail of this fascinating pursuit is clearly expounded. We teach you snap-shotting, portrait making and all branches
